In Defeat Went the Findlay Team in

Wapakoneta

Visitors were Easy for the Reds.

Three Big Relics of the Late War Have at Last Made an Appearance.

Beautiful Confirmation Services Held at St. Paul's Church Yesterday—Good Races Next Week—Personal.

Wapakoneta, Ohio, June 23.—It was something fierce, the ball game yesterday between the Findlays and the Wapakoneta Reds. Findlay had promised to be "on hand with the goods" but the only "goods" they had was their pitcher, secured from Lima. If they had been able to pick up seven or eight other players from Lima on their way down here then probably the game would have been interesting. Charlie Hunter, manager of the "Jolly Tans" may take them in hand and teach them the game. From the beginning it was hit and run for the Reds and their playing was superior in every respect. The playing of Charlie Pfennig, pitcher, Ed. Sexton, third baseman, and "Grinnin" Pfennig, short stop, was remarkable. Two new players were placed in the game yesterday but were not given much work. They are Raz, Lucas, first base, and "Sweeney" Keifer, right field. Frank Sealts, the catcher, failed to turn up, but his place was very ably filled by Guy Miller. Following is the score.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Wapakoneta—0 2 1 0 1 2 2 x—11
Batteries. Findlay—Morgan and Powell; Wapakoneta—C. Pfennig and Miller. Hits, off Morgan, 9; off Pfennig, 1. Struck out, by Morgan, 2; by Pfennig, 6. Three base hits, 1; Pfennig, 2. Two base hits, Miller and Lucas. Passed balls, Powell, 2; Miller, 1. Errors, Findlay, 9; Wapakoneta, 3. The manager expects to secure Washington C. H., for a game in the near future.

THEY HAVE ARRIVED
At last those cannons, so long and anxiously awaited, have arrived, two for the city, and one for the G. A. R. The latter is a small one about six feet in length, and will be mounted in front of the G. A. R. hall. The two for the city are about sixteen feet long and will be mounted on either side of the city building, probably before the Fourth of July.

EIGHT CONFIRMED.
The confirmation exercises at St. Paul's church yesterday were well attended, the new building, which seats 600 people, being well filled. There were eight children confirmed as follows: Carl Henry Knatz, John Herman Klipp, Christena Marie Bailey, Louetta Smith, Ida Carrie Katterhenry, Marie Catherine Brantigan, Minnie Louise Meyer and Callie Christena George. They were confirmed by the Rev. Carl Fritsch, who delivered an appropriate sermon.

MADE DOLLS FOR A DUKE.

Philadelphia Girl Has an Order From Germany.

Miss Virginia McDowell of Philadelphia is making paper dolls for the two granddaughters of the present Grand Duke of Luxembourg, says the Philadelphia Times. Thirty of the dolls, each one differently dressed, were recently sent to Castle Koeningstein, near Wiesbaden, where the children, about eight and ten years old, make their home.

A friend of Miss McDowell, an artist, is a close friend of the children's mother, and a year ago last Christmas the artist presented them with several dolls which had been made and dressed by the Philadelphia girl.

So delighted were they that their mother, fearing the evil effects of too much indulgence in such innocent pleasure, allowed the children to play with them only occasionally. The trifle bits of pasteboard and tissue paper soon wore out, and then a letter full of gorgeous with heraldic blazonry was sent to Miss McDowell asking her to make thirty of the dolls and send them as soon as possible to Castle Koeningstein.

Miss McDowell set to work immediately, and in a short while the dainty pieces of handiwork were completed. Each doll was dressed differently in costumes for various times of day—street gowns, dinner dress, ball gowns, hunting jackets and others for similar occasions. In several of the dresses the national colors of the duchy, yellow and blue, were judiciously and artistically combined.

Miss McDowell is well known in Philadelphia's younger set. She makes her home during the winter with her aunt, Miss Jones. She will spend this summer at Wildwood. She is a clever artist and has made a specialty of paper dolls.

When once liberated within your system, it produces a most wonderful effect. It's worth one's last dollar to feel the pleasure of life that comes by taking Rocky Mountain Tea. H. F. Vortkamp, corner North and Main Sts.

WHITE HOUSE CHANGES

Interior of President's Residence Will Be Remodeled.

IMPROVEMENTS TO BE EXTENSIVE

Historic Features of the Executive Mansion Not to Be Destroyed—The Dining Room Will Be Enlarged Sixty Per Cent—New Office Building For the President.

When the restoration of the White House recently begun is finished, perhaps about Dec. 1, the historic residence of the president will conform as nearly to the plans adopted for it by Washington as the architect, Mr. McKim, can make it, says the Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune. It is his purpose to make over the mansion according to the plans which would have been followed a century ago had circumstances permitted. The plans being used for this work are the original drawings. The only modification of these plans will be due to changed methods of heating, illumination and construction.

The original plans for the White House contemplated providing for the president a residence and nothing more. The plans now being executed will restore the house as a residence, and a small brick office building connected by a passageway with the main building and painted white, in keeping with its surroundings, will provide an office for the president and his clerks. This building will be entered from Seventeenth street, opposite the state, war and navy building, and it is there that all official business callers on the president will go. This office building is regarded as temporary, to be used until the president has an appropriate office building north of the White House grounds and on one of the sites that surround Lafayette park, all of which have been indicated by the park commission as ultimately to be used for public buildings.

The removal of the offices of the president from the White House is regarded as necessary for reasons aside from convenience and the proper transaction of public business. A preliminary examination of the building has shown that the portion of the house devoted to the offices of the president is weak, and it is necessary to relieve the beams from the weight that has long been on them. The house needs modern bathrooms, and there is need for restoring many features of the building on a uniform plan so as to eliminate many incongruities that have crept in from time to time when improvements or repairs have been made. This makes necessary the doing over of the entire house instead of merely one portion of it. The public rooms will be made over. The dining room will be enlarged 60 per cent in order to permit the entertainment of a large company and to make it unnecessary to use the east room for such purposes.

The placing of porticoes on the west and on the east of the White House is in conformity with old prints in the library of congress. These porticoes extend 150 feet from the main building and contain servants' quarters, laundry and storerooms. The porticoes are on the level of the garden on the south, while on the north the roofs reach to the driveway. The use to be made of the western portico will allow the basement of the White House itself to become available for other purposes, such as cloakrooms, a smoking room, etc.

The portico east of the house will be used as an entrance when receptions are held. This arrangement will do much to avert the crush now caused at the temporary cloak boxes erected immediately within the main entrance when receptions are held. Under the east corridor 500 people could be sheltered while waiting for their carriages, the porte cochere being sufficient to make room for three carriages at a time. A separate entrance and dressing rooms will be provided for special guests, so that confusion will be avoided on occasions of ceremony.

The president will have a room in the White House in which he can see callers at times when he is not in his office. The private staircase will be removed, and in that way the dining room will be enlarged 60 per cent. It is expected that the office building will be ready for occupancy by Oct. 1 and the remaining portions of the house by Dec. 1.

Senators Allison, Hale and Cockrell and Representatives Cannon, Hendon, Way and McRae, the senate and house conferees on the urgent deficiency bill, have reached an agreement as to the amount of the appropriation for the changes that are to be made at the White House and had a conference with the president the other day. The amount to be appropriated is $360,000.

Health Help
Many succumb just as they grow better, after the disease has passed—little vital force left to help reanimate health.

At such a period Hagee's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil (with its phosphorus) nourishes the vital organs while it cleanses the entire system by dissolving every remaining trace of disease.

It is not a tax on the stomach, because there is no grease in it—a thin fluid with an appetizing taste and pleasant odor—food without waste.

A NOVEL AUTOMOBILE.

Cincinnati Man to Have Fastest Machine in the World.

WILL BE TWELVE FEET LONG.

Owner Hopes to Show That American Built Vehicles Are Superior to the Foreign—Strength Forty-eight Horsepower—"One Horse Shay" Idea a Feature in the Construction.

The old "one horse shay," made famous in poetry by Oliver Wendell Holmes, is to have a prototype in Cincinnati in the form of a remarkable automobile, says the St. Louis Republic. This new and unique automobile is being built by W. H. Sumner for Mr. Wilber, a retired millionaire tobacco merchant of Cincinnati.

"Yes," said the millionaire, "I am having built for me an automobile on the exact plan of Holmes' 'one horse shay.' Every part of my new machine will be as strong as my other. There will be no weak parts whatsoever in the vehicle.

"My new automobile is being built for me for two purposes. One is to demonstrate that we can build finer automobiles in America than they can in France, which is ahead of the world in the use of automobiles, and that Cincinnati is one of the best locations in this country for a large automobile factory. If this machine now being built for me should prove the success I expect of it, it is very probable that a large automobile factory will be erected in this city, where every part of the vehicles will be made under one roof."

This new machine is built with the object of making it the strongest, finest and fastest racing automobile in the world. The vehicle is being built to make eighty miles an hour on a racing track and from thirty-five to forty miles an hour touring over the country.

The automobile will be 12 feet in length, 5 feet 8 inches wide and 26½ inches from the ground, this being much lower than the racer operated by Fourmire, the noted French chauffeur. It is being erected to cut the air. The engine base will be of aluminum, mixed with a certain quantity of alloy. An aluminum box casting for the engine has been made by a Cincinnati firm that is the largest aluminum casting ever made in the United States, being 32 by 20 by 12 inches and weighs eighty pounds. The same casting from iron would have weighed 400 pounds. Every part of the automobile except the carbonizer is being made in Cincinnati.

There will be a twenty-four gallon tank of gasoline. It will take one gallon of gasoline for every twenty-five miles. The whole machine when touring will weigh 2,250 pounds and 2,000 pounds when racing. The maximum strength will be forty-eight horsepower. All the running section of the machine will be included in a dust proof aluminum case which will be three parts filled with the finest lubricating oil, the intention of Mr. Wilber being to see how many miles this automobile will run without the machinery getting out of order.

The builder, Mr. Sumner, states that the machine will be positively noiseless. Mr. Wilber decided to have this "one horse shay" built as the result of an accident. He was out riding in his small automobile a few weeks ago, accompanied by Miss Eleanor Hoses of Mount Auburn. The two front wheels broke off, throwing Miss Hoses and Mr. Wilber out of the vehicle. Miss Hoses was slightly injured at the time, and the automobile came near being made into old scrap iron by a street car. After that accident Mr. Wilber decided to build a "one horse shay," and like the old deacon of the poem, he vowed he would have an automobile built in a logical way.

LATEST IN DANCES.

Teachers of the Art Approve Three New Forms.

The dancing masters of the United States and Canada at their annual convention decided upon three new dances to be launched this year with the convention's stamp of approval, says the Chicago Inter Ocean. The dances are the authors' favorite, by E. J. Connolly of Oswego; the Olympia, a fancy dance for children, by R. G. Bauman of Albany; and the military dip waltz, whose inventor is George Lovely of Springfield, Mass. They are all "professors," and so are the rest of the association's 1,000 members.

The military dip, as demonstrated the other day by its inventor and Miss Helena Harker of Fort Wayne, one of the danseuses, seemed to be much like the so called dip waltz, which has been in vogue for several years. The difference lies in the addition of a dip forward on one foot and a second dip backward on the other foot and then a plain ordinary waltz. This is a description of the gyrations of the authors' favorite.

March two measures, four twostep movements, with usual turning; three glides to left, finishing on right foot; waltz to finish of strain and repeat.

The Olympia was too involved to be described. The three dances, according to the professors, will certainly be the rage next winter, no matter what their summer fate may be.

New Yachting Suits.

Some of the prettiest yachting suits for the season are of white serge or velveting trimmed or trimmed with narrow white silk braid, says the New York Press. On the left arm is a colored band with the embroidered burgee of the yacht on which it is to be worn.

PRINCETON'S NEW CHIEF.

How Dr. Wilson Showed He Wasn't "Many" as a New Professor.

Woodrow Wilson, president elect of Princeton university, one of the best living authorities in the United States on questions of national government, is the most popular professor in the university, and for several years some 350 juniors and seniors of his elective class in jurisprudence and politics have held to this course with a grip like that of the class ivy which clings to the walls of stately "Old North," writes the Princeton correspondent of the Philadelphia Press.

Many of Princeton's young alumni of the early nineties will recall Professor Wilson's first year as a member of the faculty. "This was in 1890, and a custom was then in vogue among the undergraduates to find out how 'easy' a 'new prof' was. An alumnus tells the following story:

"One morning soon after Professor Wilson had assumed his new duties he was about to begin his lecture when he noticed a drunken Irishman rise from one of the front seats and begin to perform a few antics for the edification of this contingent of Old Nassau's sons. The lecturer stepped down from the platform and accosted the son of Erin thus:

"Who asked you to come in here, sir?"

"The shoddenents invited me in," came the prompt though rather tremulous reply.

"Well, I'll invite you out again," said Professor Wilson, and, taking the intruder by the coat collar, he hustled him down the stairs three steps at a time.

"Suffice it to say," said the alumnus, "that the lecture went through as usual, and one lesson learned that day has always been remembered by six score of students who are now out 'in the wide, wide world.'"

Last winter a Princeton man was told the following story by one of his friends, a minister, who lives near Washington, N. J.:

"One day, not long ago, while I was in a certain well known bookstore in New York looking over some publications, I fell into a short conversation with a gentleman who was also looking through some books. During the conversation I remarked that I had recently been reading some of Woodrow Wilson's works and enjoyed them so much that I was anxious to see a photograph of the author. This gentleman said he thought I would be able to find a picture of the man in a certain number of Scribner's Magazine. He left the store, and I proceeded to look up that issue of the magazine. I found the picture therein. The man with whom I had been talking was Woodrow Wilson."

WILHELMINA'S HOME LIFE.

Unhappy Relations With Her Husband Decried by Hollanders.

The Dutch are greatly tried with the reports which have been circulating throughout the world for the last two years concerning the home life of their queen, says the New York Tribune. A prominent man in a number of Holland who is at present traveling in this country said to a group of American friends the other evening:

"It is a pitiful romance to say that Wilhelmina's marriage has been an unhappy one. If that were true, we Hollanders would be the first to make the accusation, for surely we would not defend the Prussian stranger at the expense of our queen. The marriage itself has never ceased to be a love match."

"I would like to give a little incident of their domestic life which came to me directly from a chamberlain in honor to the royal house. One day the king was searching through the chambers of the palace for Queen Wilhelmina. He came to the room where the premier was presently waiting for an audience. The room was dark, and the king mistook him for the object of his search and said, 'Finde ich dich hier, mein liebes Paar?'

"It is a shame to translate that lyrical and human little phrase 'Mein liebes Paar,' Solomon once spoke of his heart's love as a gazelle, and perhaps that is as near an Anglo-Saxon will come. The incident is typical of the relations of our king and queen to each other."

I. O. O. F.

All members of Allen Lodge No. 223 are earnestly requested to meet in their hall at 7 o'clock this evening for the purpose of making arrangements for the funeral of brother E. J. McGintre. J. W. EVERETT, N. G.

Consumers of water from the Lima Water Works are hereby notified that the water rent for the first half of the year 1902, is long past due. As the rules and regulations provide that all water rents except for measured water, must be paid semi-annually in advance.

If you have not paid for the first half of the year 1902 it will be well for you to do so before the 20th day of July if you wish to continue the use of the city water after that date. The present supply of water compels the trustees to economize, as much as possible, and they have decided to furnish water only to those who comply with the rules and regulations of the water works.

Please attend to this without further notice, and do not fail to call on the officers, if the water is turned off from your premises, for either non-payment of water rent, or unnecessary waste of water or for sprinkling out of hours. Sprinkling hours, are from 5 o'clock to 8 o'clock a. m. and from 5 to 8 p. m. By order of the board of trustees. J. N. Hutchinson, secretary.

FOR LITTLE FOLKS
A SIPHON TRICK.
Emptying a Glass of Water With a Bottle of Water.
Suppose you are handed a glass full of water and a bottle filled with water and asked to empty the glass with the help of the bottle, letting the bottle remain full.

Bore two holes through a cork in such a way that two pieces of straw can be fitted in airtight. One should extend as long as the glass is deep, and the other should be twice as long as the first. Put the cork into the bottle, as shown in the illustration; close the opening of the shorter piece of straw with sealing wax and press the longer piece of straw so deep into the water that the water squirts out of the opening. Turn the bottle around in such a way that the short piece of straw reaches to the bottom of the glass, as shown in figure; cut off the closed end with a pair of scissors, and the water will run out of the longer piece of straw until the glass is empty, the bottle remaining full.

Just a Hint.
"Father," asked Tommy the other day, "why is it that the boy is said to be the father of the man?"
Mr. Tompkins had never given this subject any thought and was hardly prepared to answer offhand.

"Why—why?" he said, stammering.
"It's so because it is, I suppose."
"Well," said Tommy, "since I'm your father, I'm going to give you a ticket to a theater and a dollar besides. I always said that if I was a father I wouldn't be so stingy as the rest of them are. Go in and have a good time while you're young. I never had any chance myself!"

Mr. Tompkins gazed in blank amazement at Tommy. Slowly the significance of the hint dawned upon him.
Producing the silver coin, he said:
"Take it, Thomas. When you really do become a father, I hope it won't be your misfortune to have a son who is smarter than yourself."—American Boy.

Lincoln's Boys.
The White House has not been the home of many boys. President Lincoln had three sons—namely, Robert, Willie and Thomas. Robert was a young man who entered the army.
Willie died early in the administration.
and Thomas, or "Tad," was the "child of the White House," the object of everybody's love, being a thoroughgoing American boy, independent and mischievous, but at the same time thoughtful. The president made him his companion. "Tad" was a great favorite with the soldiers and often marched with them, ate with them and slept with them. On the night that President Lincoln was shot it was "Tad" who first acquainted the servants in the White House with the tragedy, addressing his friend, Thomas Pender, the usher at the White House, with the cry: "Oh, Tom, Tom, Tom Pender! They have killed my papa!"

The Potato Race.
A game requiring no effort of the mind and invariably laughter provoking is the potato race. Place in two parallel rows and about two feet apart five large and irregular potatoes and at the end an empty bowl. The contestant must pick up each potato on a teaspoon, carry it to the bowl and drop it in. The potato must not be touched by hand or foot and if dropped must not be picked up on the spoon again. Watch attitudes and faces and exercises of will, for, oh, how that left hand will want to help! Even the most dignified must unbend in this genial struggle. Record is kept of those first succeeding in getting all the potatoes into the bowl, and these again race against each other until the champion reveals himself or herself. This should be played if possible on an uncarpeted floor.

The Clever Kittens.
"My cat speaks French," said little Joanne.
"As plainly as can be,"
says "old woman plain" (that's "if you please").
"And thanks me with 'merci'!"
I know, because I understand Each word she says to me."

"And mine speaks German," with a nod.
Said Lisa from the Rhine:
"Says 'little' when she wants a drink
And 'ja' of course, and 'nein'!
I wouldn't have a cat that spoke.
A different tongue from mine!"

"That's three for you!" sweet Nora said.
With merry look demure.
"Me own shpoken Olish!" Whim I set
A saucer on the fire.
An ask her would she like some milk.
The darlint tells me "Shure!"

I met those kittens afterward.
No matter where nor how.
I listened well to what they said;
Would you believe it now?
They spoke in English, every one.
And all they said was "Meow!"

Modes Companion.

THE LAKE CHAUTAUQUA BOOK
Published by The Lake Shore & Michigan Southern R.R.

Lake Chautauqua is one of the most famous and delightful of summer resorts. It is also one where a most enjoyable vacation can be had at a nominal expense. Located 1500 feet above sea level, the air is pure, cool and invigorating; hot, oppressive days and nights are practically unknown; climatic conditions unsurpassed. The lake is twenty miles long by two wide; water supply entirely from springs, a Coney Island; at other points are fine resorts with summer hotels and cottages. Frequent service by fine steamers furnish very enjoyable excursions between all points; roads for driving and wheeling are excellent. Good accommodations at resorts about the lake in hotels and cottages at $7 to $21 per week.

Chautauqua is reached over the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern

BARBED WIRE PHONE LINES
Montana Ranchmen Making a General Use of the Fences.
"They are inaugurating a telephone exchange in Fort Benton," said a northern Montana man recently to a reporter of the Battle Inter Mountain,
"that will put the embryo telephone companies entirely in the shade."
"Fort Benton's latest effort is a barbed wire telephone communication.
Being by instinct and association cow people, they resented the genesis of the barbed wire, and when it was discovered that it was one of the evils that came with the railroad and threw the cowpuncher, the bull train and the river steamer out of the game they decided to take a material view of the situation, and the result is that they are preparing to have a telephone exchange which will take in every ranch from the Missouri river north to the Canadian line and south to the Highwood mountains.
"Among the duties of the operator at the toll station, which will be situated at Benton, will be calling the ranchers on the various creeks in the morning, notifying them when the trains are twelve or fourteen hours late and giving the sheepmen the latest report of the weather bureau, so that they may be ready during lambing time for the storms which are so destructive in that section.
"Ranches are strung all along the line from Benton up Shonkin creek to the mountains, and with a short addition to the fences, which run continuously, the line will be carried across the Highwood mountains near old Jack Connolly's ranch at Eagle Head to the thickly populated Highwood district and to the Judith basin.
"When the line is finished, the ranchman in northern Montana will only have to step to the phone to be in connection with every city in the state.
On emergency cases he can call a physician or a minister, as the case requires. The latter is of particular importance in the Bear Paw and Little Rocky region, as some men down there have still the old time habit of dying in their boots, and even telephonic connection with a sky pilot is a desirable modern convenience.
When a bunch of beef steers stampede and go through the barbed wire, central will know that the line is in need of repair and that the beef steers of the square outfit are losing back by the pound.

BOTH PHONES NO. 24.

IT IS HIGH TIME FOR THE SLOT MACHINES TO GO.

One of the most potent evidences of the laxity of the present municipal administration in Lima is the fact that the city is literally overrun with slot machines. For a period prior to the end of the McComb administration the city was free from these pests. They were ordered to be removed from all places in the city, and the police, obeying the instructions from the head of the municipal government, compelled the mandate to be obeyed. A short time before the end of the term of the former Mayor, however, they were again permitted to be brought into the city and under Mayor Rogers administration they have been allowed to remain undisturbed, and run day and night and Sundays, receiving the money from people which should be used to buy bread and butter for their families.

In most instances the patrons of these mischievous gambling devices are those who can little afford to lose the money that is put into them. Men whose families need every penny that they earn, are attracted to the slot machine and the amount of their earnings which they gamble away in them represents a degree of suffering on the part of those dependent upon them to the extent that they have insufficient food and clothing.

Mayor Rogers should order every slot machine in Lima removed from the city at once. In most of the cities and towns in Ohio, where good government prevails, slot machines are not allowed at all, and there is no good reason why Lima should be any exception to this class.

If it was a part of an anti-election bargain, that in consideration of certain aid in securing his election Mayor Rogers was to permit these gambling devices to be operated in Lima, the people of the city are entitled to know it and thereby be brought to a realization of the degree of moral turpitude that assisted in the defeat of John Shannahan, the Democratic candidate for Mayor whose election would have resulted in the banishment of every slot machine from the city. If there was such a bargain it is of a class better broken than kept, and Mayor Rogers, acting in the interest of good morals, should lose no time in ordering every slot machine out of the city, and impose the heaviest penalty for violation of his mandate.

DEMOCRATS ARE PREPARED TO WIN THIS YEAR.

There are indications that there will be no early crop of candidates for places on the Democratic state ticket this year, but that when the seed does take root it will spring up with an unusually abundant harvest. Ordinarily at this period prior to a state convention the list of announced candidates is comparatively full, but this year the aspirants are "laying low." In view of the lateness of the convention the whole plan of Democratic operations must rest upon a short, sharp, vigorous campaign—one that will be quick in launching itself and immediately attain the highest speed when under way. Taking this view of the case, prospective candidates are inclined to wait until the last moment to file their entries, in order that their own canvasses may partake of the character of the campaign that is to follow the nominations. The most spirited contests are likely to be over the nominations for secretary of state and dairy and food commissioner. The Democrats are almost certain to elect the latter officer, and the honor of heading the state ticket will not go begging this year. There is an unusual unanimity of sentiment among Democrats that the Republican position in the state this year is weaker than it has been for a long time. The imminence of Hanna's candidacy for reelection as senator, the complications arising from his presidential boom, the record of the late Republican legislature and the general confusion existing in the Republican party at large as a result of the revelations in Cuba and the Philippines—all these conditions combine to make a most favorable Democratic opportunity, not only in Ohio but in all states holding elections. The Republicans in private admit their apprehension that the next national house of representatives will be Democratic, and Ohio will do her part to this end. A Democratic congressman will be gained in the Twelfth district, where Judge DeWitt C. Badger will lead the ticket and defeat the corrupt object of the late legislature in divorcing Fairfield from Franklin county and making the district consist of the latter alone. Democrats will certainly be returned from all the Ohio Democratic districts, and in close districts there is a good chance of retiring the present Republican congressman. The hopeful nature of the congressional outlook in the state cannot fail to have a beneficial effect on the state ticket.

Boy Confesses to Arson.

Hamilton O., June 23.—Milton Williams, 16, confessed that he set fire to the Sterling Paper company's Fordham mill which was damaged $20,000 by fire a week ago. The only reason he gives is that he didn't want to work at night, which as an employee of mill he had to do. He is the same boy who was found bound and gagged in the kitchen of his parents' home recently and claimed that burglars had seized him. Deputy Fire Marshal Ambrose and Berry are here in charge of the case.

Captured the Town.

Panama, Colombia, June 23.—The chief of government gunboats returned here with the news that Agua Dulce had been captured June 18. As the government forces approached Agua Dulce over 100 government soldiers, who had previously been captured by revolutionary forces under General Herrera and had been incorporated in the liberal army, joined the government troops under command of General Berti. Agua Dulce was captured without resistance.

THUNDER MOUNTAIN ROAD.

Much Needed Thoroughfare to New Ft. Dorado Area to Be Built.

A Nampa (Ida.) letter in the Seattle Times says the vexed problem of a wagon road to the Thunder mountain mines, which has been agitating the minds of the people of the southern portion of Idaho ever since the New Ft. Dorado was discovered, has been settled definitely and active work on the road will shortly begin. Engineer L. M. Clark of the Idaho Northern and B. O. & N. railway has returned from a tour of inspection of the Nampa-Bennett route in Garden valley or Long valley, and E. H. Dewey, western manager of the Thunder Mountain Gold and Silver Mining company, has announced, as before intimated, that the wagon road will be built this way. Colonel W. H. Dewey of Nampa, who purchased the original Thunder mountain ore discoveries from the Caswell brothers, has recently completed a new railroad from Nampa to Bennett, a distance of thirty miles, and it is from this terminus that the Thunder mountain wagon road will be built. The total distance from Bennett to the mines by this road will be 120 miles, going by way of Gold Fork. A stage line will be operated from Bennett.

On account of the enormous cost involved and the evident superiority of the route selected in the matter of distance and good roads this will probably be the only Thunder mountain wagon road from southern Idaho. Boise City will build up and connect with this road at Pen Basin, and Webster and Council will build and connect with it at a point near Emmett.

Mr. D. S. Murray, manager of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company, now has use in the field building a telephone line from Emmett to Thunder mountain. The great rush is expected to begin the first of July.

PELEE STOPPED THE GAME.

Lotto Was Being Played When Eruption Overwhelmed St. Pierre.

One of the places visited by the Dixie party on reaching the ruins of St. Pierre was the clubhouse, says the Washington Post. Here was a scene of desolation such as inspired the conqueror of Constantinople when he rode into St. Sophia over the piles of slain. The clubhouse interior was just as the inmates had left it when the terrible rain of fire that destroyed St. Pierre came on.

The chips used in the game of lotto, a species of faro, popular throughout the West Indies, were lying about in stacks just as the players had left them when the city was destroyed. Mr. Robert Hill brought back quite a number of these chips, together with a large quantity of the volcanic pumice stone erupted by Mont Pelee.

No good health unless the kidneys are sound. Foley's Kidney Cure makes the kidneys right. For sale by H. F. Vortkamp, corner North and Main streets.

Saves Two From Death.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Hawland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and today she is perfectly well." Vortkamp, corner North and Main streets. Trial bottle free.

Women's Trials.

Thinking of desserts and bedwork, according to one woman, is the most anxious part of the average woman's daily round of duty. The whole subject of ordering meals is wearing, but desserts are the worst. To provide variety and to please the various members of the family with the end of the dinner is a task the difficulty of which only women who have tried to live up to it can appreciate. As for bedwork, no other part of a woman's dress can give her so much concern. Being next to her face, it requires special consideration to insure its being beautiful. It must always be fresh, and the style ought to be changed frequently.

Seven Years in Bed.

"Will wonders ever cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. L. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration, and general debility; but "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from Headache, Backache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Satisfaction is guaranteed at H. F. Vortkamp's, corner North and Main streets. Only 50c.

In former days a married woman could not get her life insured, the supposition being that her husband might kill her for her insurance money.

WOMAN'S WORLD.

MRS. ALICE SCHWORTZ.

She is Known as "the Singer Who Sings People into Heaven."

Mrs. Alice Schwortz has devoted the best years of her life and all her musical talent and accomplishments to singing for invalids in the home or the hospital and prison, and she is spoken of by all who know her as "the singer who sings people into heaven."

Mrs. Schwortz does not know herself how she obtained this rare gift of soothing and impressing the dying so that the tortured senses find immediate relief and the sufferer passes away in perfect peace on the wings of song. She sings like one in a trance, unconscious of her surroundings, not even aware of the words she has chosen, her eyes turned upward with a rapt expression, while all who hear her are dominated and thrilled by the power and sweetness of her music. In the wards of the hospital the sick listen as if they were hearing celestial singing, and to those who are not fatally ill it brings strength and repose, like an electric current. Physicians have declared the effect to be hypnotic and have themselves listened spell-bound to the inspired strains.

The singer does not improvise words, or music, but uses the familiar hymns, "Nearer My God, to Thee," and "One Sweetly Solitary Thought" or others as popular and well known. Her voice is a sympathetic contralto of great sweetness, and she had it cultivated in her youth for choir singing.

In her home in Carthage, Miss. she first gave up fashionable pursuits and found her happiness in smoothing the way to another life by her magnetism of song. The knowledge that her voice would have made her famous among the world's vocalists has never disturbed this singularly gifted woman. She gave it free to the helpless.

Mrs. Schwortz has a charming personality and is highly esteemed by her friends as the possessor of many Christian virtues. Only two other women have essayed the role in which she is so proficient—Mrs. Augusta Evans Wilson, the southern novelist, and Emma Abbott, who a few days before her death sang "The Last Rose of Summer" for a dying man.—Chicago Record-Herald.

To Improve the Figure.

On arising and the last thing before going to bed when you have on your nightdress stand with your back against a door and all your lungs, breathing through the nostrils, with the mouth closed, until the lungs can hold no more. Retain the breath while you count four. Expel it through the nose, counting seven. Practice this breathing movement ten times.

Next stand upright, turn out the toes so that the heels touch, place your hands on your hips, the fingers on the diaphragm, the thumbs back in the soft part of the back either side of the spinal column, and draw in a deep breath. Force the air down so that you feel the thumbs pressed out through the expansion of the lower back part of the lungs. Hold the breath while counting four; expel while counting seven. Practice this movement six times.

Third Movement—Stand straight, head up, shoulders thrown back, arms hanging by the side. Now gradually raise the arms until they are high above the head. While you are performing this movement take in a deep breath through the nostrils until the lungs can hold no more. Retain the breath while counting four. Now gradually lower the arms, at the same time slowly expelling the breath, counting seven. Repeat six times.

These exercises practice night and morning, and they will develop the bust and shoulders, they will cure round shoulders, will rouse a torpid liver into action, wonderfully benefit a dull, muddy complexion and improve the general health.

It is important that these exercises should be performed with the window open.

When the doctor tells you to "take a teaspoonful" of any medicine, you had better get a graduated glass and not trust to the estimate of the spoons of your domestic life. Medical men are now calling attention to the fact that the ordinary teaspoon is of such a varying capacity that no reliance is to be placed upon it as a measure of quantity. If you are only taking quinine and paregoric for your cold, the difference will not matter, but if the medicine is some powerful drug it matters a lot. A teaspoon is theoretically supposed to hold sixty minims, but from tests

DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP.

IS TRIED AND TRUE.

A true mother values her children above everything. To mothers, then, we say, it is not important with you unknown cough medicine—use a tried and reliable physician's prescription. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is business sure and quick. It never fails. It will cure any cough a child may have.

Mrs. Arthur Penn, McKean, Pa., writes: "My two little boys had a very severe attack of bronchitis. By using Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup they were cured. I would not be without it in the house for any money."

A. C. MEYER & CO., Baltimore, Md. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is sold by all druggists or by mail.

recently made it was found that the ordinary teaspoon varies in capacity from 75 to 130 minims. Of dessert spoons examined two contained three fluid drams and if third nearly four. In like manner tablespoons vary in capacity from four to six drams. As the teaspoon is the measure by which potent fluid medicines are generally administered this large increase in actual capacity over the theoretical one is of the greatest importance and may account for many cases where patients have died from "overdoses" of medicine.

To take an example, a physician might prescribe a solution of strychnine so compounded that a theoretical teaspoonful of the mixture would give a dose of one-sixteenth of a grain. If in taking his medicine the patient used the ordinary domestic teaspoon, he would get nearly one-tenth of a grain at a dose, and a repetition of such dose might be fatal.

It produces a wonderful effect upon the human system. Indescribable feelings of pleasure go leaping and bounding through your body after taking Rocky Mountain Tea. For sale by H. F. Vortkamp, corner North and Main streets.

Neatness in Girls.

Neatness is a good thing for a girl, and if she does not learn it when young she never will. It takes a great deal more neatness to make a girl look well than it does to make a boy look passable, not because a boy, to start with, is better looking than a girl, but his clothes are of a different sort, not so many colors in them, and people do not expect a boy to look so pretty as a girl, says Woman's World. A girl that is not neatly dressed is called a sloven, and no one likes to look at her. Her face may be pretty and her eyes bright, but if there is a spot of dirt on her cheek and her finger nails are black with oil, and her shoes are not laced or buttoned and her skirt is torn she cannot be liked. Learn to be neat and when you have learned it will almost take care of itself.

How American Women Travel.

Most American women abroad work hard. They travel in all sorts of discomfort, rising "twice it is yet night," walking through miles of picture galleries, visiting ancient churches and cathedrals and "doing" all kinds of places in which they take no interest. They go to so many cities and see them so superficially that they know nothing about any of them really. How can any one know anything of a country, its people, institutions, language, art, architecture, morals, schools or anything else just by racing through it with a party of nervous, hurried strangers, each member of it tired and worn to a frazzle?—Woman's Home Companion.

Chronic bronchial troubles and summer coughs can be quickly relieved and cured by Foley's Kidney and Tar.

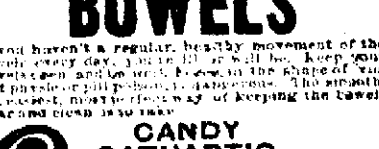

H. F. Vortkamp, corner North and Main streets.

Good Mousetraps.

A good mousetrap can be arranged by turning a bowl over a dinner plate with one edge lifted upon a bit of wood an inch across, about one-half of which is whittled to a point. Upon this point a bit of roasted cheese is placed, and the edge of the bowl is raised on one side and held up by the stick. As the balance is very easily disturbed, the mouse in taking of the cheese is certain to let the bowl down upon the plate in a way to imprison itself.

Who Have Passed from Mortal Life.Odd Fellows Hold Annual Memorial Services in the Opera House.Many Visiting Members were Present and the House was Crowded to the Doors—Program of the Exercises.

The annual memorial services of the local lodges of Odd Fellows and Daughters of Rebekah were held in the Faurot opera house yesterday afternoon, commencing at 2:30 o'clock and the exercises were as beautiful, impressive and fitting as any of the kind ever held in Lima. The six lodges—three of the Odd Fellows and three of the Rebekahs—met at their respective headquarters and then proceeded to the public square where a general procession was formed and from there they marched to the opera house. The men led the procession and halted in open order at the opera house entrance which the ladies of D. of R. lodges marched between the lines and took the seats that had been reserved for them in the auditorium. This order has more members in Lima than any other organization represented in the city and there being also quite a number of visiting delegations present, the opera house was crowded to the doors when the exercises began.

The memorial representations by Messrs M. J. Sanford, for Allen lodge; Dr. M. S. Bowser, for Solon lodge; S. H. Treat, for Lima lodge, and by Mrs. Simpson, for Shawnee lodge; Mrs. Storer, for Golden Gate lodge; and Mrs. Loomis, for Stella lodge, and the relief committee report by Thomas H. Jones were very interesting features of the program and the memorial sermon by the Rev. George W. Anderson was an eloquent and impressive address, excellently appropriate to the occasion. The program as rendered was as follows:

HAND

Of Death Claims a
City Official.

E. J. Maguire

Passed to Rest Sunday
Afternoon.Had Been a City Infirmary Director for Nearly Twenty Years.Is Survived by One Brother and Two Daughters—Was an Odd Fellow and a Veteran of the Civil War.

Elisha J. Maguire, one of the best known of Lima's oldest citizens, died at his home, 409 west Spring street, about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, death resulting from general debility. He had been falling in health during the last year but it was not known that his illness had become serious, consequently the announcement of his death was a surprise and an unexpected shock to his legion of friends and acquaintances.

The deceased would have been sixty years of age next September and nearly every year of his useful and exemplary life was spent in Lima. His boyhood days were spent here and among the companions of his youth who survive him are city infirmary director John H. Andersen and ex-postmaster R. W. Melly. During the war of the rebellion he served under Old Glory as a member of the Fourth Ohio cavalry regiment. About thirty years ago, while employed as fireman of stationary boilers at the C. H. & D. shops, he was stricken with an attack of locomotor ataxia and the infirmity remained with him until death. Nearly twenty years ago he was elected township trustee of Ottawa township, a position now known as city infirmary director, in which capacity he served the city constantly and faithfully during the remainder of his life. His colleague, John H. Andersen, has served as a member of the same board for about seventeen years.

The deceased was one of a family of four sons. His father died many years ago but his venerable mother, "Aunt" Jane Maguire only preceded him to the future realm a few months, having passed away last fall at an advanced age. One brother, Nelson Maguire, of Spokane, Wash., and two daughters, Mrs. Geo. Schnabel, of Bellefontaine avenue, and Miss Lelia Maguire, a teacher in the local public schools, survive him. Mr. Maguire was a member of Allen lodge No. 223, I. O. O. F., and Mart Armstrong Post No. 202, G. A. R., and was also a member of the congregation of Christian Scientists.

The funeral services will be held at the late residence of the deceased at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, Rev. Sims, pastor of the south side church of Christ will officiate and Allen Lodge of the Odd Fellows will have charge of the services. The remains will be consigned to a final resting place in Woodlawn cemetery.

Friends of the deceased who desire to visit the remains are requested to call at the house prior to the funeral service as the casket will not be opened after the services.

WILD RIDE

Taken by a Cripple Crazy
by Drink.

At midnight, Friday, Lieutenant Farquhar and patrolman Hufford picked up a middle-aged man and a cripple who had ridden from Lima to this city, says the Findlay Jeffersonian. He was found out near West Park and was in a frenzied condition from drink. The man had ridden from Lima on the bumper of a freight train and how he escaped death can only be imagined. As it was he lost his hat and cane, and presented a sorry spectacle. He gave the name of John Linn and his age as forty. The mayor fined him $5.00 and freed him out of town.

DEMAND

For Increase in Wages Was RefusedAnd Fourteen Laborers Refused to Work for the Western Ohio Railway Company.

Fourteen men in the employ of the Western Ohio railway, who were at work laying rails southwest of Sidney went out on a strike at noon Saturday. The men were getting $1.50 per day for their work and demanded an increase of 25 cents more on the day claiming that an increase in the price they had to pay for board justified their claims. They presented their claims to the foreman who informed them that the advance they asked for would not be granted.

The men quit work and returned to Sidney. The striking men will not materially effect the laying of the rails as there are about forty more still at work. The work is progressing nicely.
